On Mönday 'laft between' XI and XII-'o'clock at fibbill, a file broke contact the West pattoft his lown, whereby is joiner's shop 'was confumed, and part of a large' divelling house adjoining thereto,' with many things therein also borne. The wind blowing yery high after I was 'a considerable limit before it livas extilify unliked "the root of the West meeting house calched on fire, in several much adamaged y but by the 'action fire,' in several blackes, and the houses in the 'action fire,' in several much 'damaged'y but by the 'action' before house when the 'action' before house in the 'action' before house and the 'action' before house and the 'action' before house and the 'action' before house house and a several when the 'action' before house house and a contact of the words and a contact of the words. regnourrous were much damaged; but by the dexterity of the people, and a contain lupply of water, a lich was put to their progress of 'it.' " " o' . but A " " The 'dap' fallowing, between 'M' and 'M' to clock in the forencom, a flore at the upper end of Mr. ('Giff for by Mr. ('Lithe' tham ber' of which was improved as a laboratorius the demandation of the date of nogwnert, the chamber for which was improved has a slab of ability by the detachment of his Majedy's train of right a futilery, solvi here? by forme accident catch do n'fife twitch communicated inclif to fonce powder which was therein, whereby the building blew up, and fome of the implement, small arms and flore of the implement, small arms and love of the implement of the communication of the communicati were deftroy'd Pulso' the damage to the train is not be great at has been reported, or as it was at full limaging to the four or 'five men, who see 'fat work at the 'time '6f the explotion,' were wounded, and two of them much bornt. "In the under part of the 'lore, a variety of merchandike, provisions, &c. beloning to Mr. Griffin', were consumed or damaged — A carliente's 'fiop' was burn'; and backfuiths much thaining 'dy', this last was between the liplate where the fire began, and the warehooties' on the I daver end of the wharf, wherein was deposited the 'thief of the arillery flore, but the wine the definition of the lannes with 'thoe follows, are consumed to the word of the ware, are communication of the flames with 'thoe follows, and near the 'time' of brigh water, are communication of the flames with 'thoe follows, and, so we have a communication of the people, featonably fores, was, by the vigilance of the people, feafonably prevented; one or two granado fhelis, and a few fmall'arms went off during the fire; but they the divine favour,"no lives were loft. "The explosion was fo great'af firlt'that a confiderable flock was felt even to the 'extrime pairs of the town, and the fiole fo loud that it was head af minst miles dilance.

Bûthe 'zoth of this find? March will be 'a day memoriable for the mot 'errible, fire that has happened to this town or perhaps in any other pair of North-America, 'far 'exceeding that of Octob, 'z', 1711. till moy termed the great fire.' I began about two o'clock in the morning, in the dwelling, house of Mrs. Mary Jackfon and Son, at 'the brazen head in corshill, but the 'accident which occasioned 't is yet uncertain.' The 'llames cauchd' the' house' adjoining in (the front of the firetet, and 'built four large buildings before a stop could be 'put to it thepe; but the fire raged most. violently towards the east, the wind blowing' strong at Nf. My. and carried all before 'it, from the back sides of those houses'—All the Stores and dwelling houses in Pudding lane, excepting fo great'at first that a considerable shock was felt even flores and dwelling houses in Pudding lane, excepting those which from the south side of king street, and a flore of Mr. Spooner's on water-flreet, to quaker lane, and from thence only leaving a large old wooden-house, and a house belonging to the late Cornelius house, and a house belonging to the late Cornelius Waldo, Efiq, it burnt every house, hibs, floreivout-house, &c. to Oliver's dock; and an eddy of wind carrying the fire contrary to its courte, it tools' the buildings froming the lower part of king-tireet, and 'deftroyed the houses from the corner opposite the bunch' of grapes tavers, to the warehouse of Medis, 'Box and 'Abutin, leaving only the warehouse of the hon. John Erving, 'Efq; and the' dwelling house of Mr. Hattligs, 'flanding; the other brief warehouse's towards the long-wharf were confiderably damaged.—On the fouth eath part, the fire extended from Mr.

I the course of those flames which in their progress confined near 400 dwelling bloutes, flores, those, thipping, &c., together with goods and merchandize of almost every kind, to an interedible value — but | 1, anon easy, to describe the terrors of that is a la morning, in which the imaginations of the most call mand tledgy, received impressions that will, not easily abe esfaced; the the first appearance of the she first there was behelved with a smart gale from the N.-W. then was behelved with a smart gale from the N.-W. then was behelved in a seeming instant all was slame; and in that part, of the course of the course of the call arm was great, and an explosion so on followed, which a larm was great, and an explosion so of powder—the, an larm was great, and an explicit in a seeming instant all was slame; and in that part, of the town were was a magazine of powder—the, an larm was great, and an explicit in the same that and selection strength and the strength and th been removed by fome, hardy adventurers, jul. before the explosion; at the fante time cinders and flates of fire were feen flying over that quarter where twee tweethers. posited the remainder of the artillery floreshad com-bullible to the remainder of the artillery floreshad com-bullible to the remainder of the remainder of the fire: The people of this and the neighbouring towns exerted themselves to an uncommon degree, and were excreed themselves to an uncommonage of the great-encouraged by the presence and example of the great-encouraged by the present of the haughty slames triencouraged by the prefence and example of the greatest perforages among us, but the haughty flames triumphed over our engines, our art, and our number.

The difficulties our engines, our art, and our number.

The difficulties our engines, our art, and our numbers.

The difficulties in the second of the preference in fire; Carce knew whete to take refuge from the rapid flames; mainbers who were confined, to heds of fickness and pain, as well as the aged and, the infant; demanded a compatition pit attention.—they were removed from houleste hoping are even the first were obliged to stake one more remove before their final one. 37 he lofs of intertitication as yet be afcertained or who have fusfained the gragetif this faid that the damage which only one gentle than has received, cannot be made good with L. 5.000 it rings, at it is in general too great, to hapmadeup, by the other linhartants, exhauled as we have been by the great proportion this town has; born of the extraordinary experies of the war, and by, the demand, upon our many, months paft, a partial relief can now only be many morths paft; a partial relief can now only be afforded to the milerable fufferers, and, without the compaffionate affiliance of our christian friends abroad companionate anniance of our christian friends abroad, distrets, and ruis "may, quite overwhelm the greatest part of filtern, and this once, flourishing metropolis mult long remain under its prefent detolation.—In the midd of our profess distance. the midi of our prefent diffres we have great cause of thankfulnes, that notwithstanding the falling of the walls and chimnies, divine providence has do mercifully ordered it, that not one life has been lost, mercifully ordered it, that not one life has been lott, and only a few wounded.

The following is from a lift of the Perfort who dwelt in the houses, which are now continued, which was takeffly the Affelfor in November laft; which was takeffly the Affelfor in November laft; which tho it may not be exact, may serve to give tome led of the wall defrued that the continued of the inhabitants are reduced thereby, Corobill.
